

Unjustice: Overcoming Trump's Rollbacks on Youth Justice

CCRY Fall Meeting

October 2018

Get To Know Your Neighbor

What does youth justice mean to you?

What is one thing you are hoping to gain from this session?

How could our communities and society improve if we didn't imprison our youth?

What is the last book you've read?

Share something unique about yourself.

“Law-and-order”

Think. Pair. Share.

---

- Reflect on the video clip.
- How does Unjustice show up in your community?

UNJUSTICE

The numerous abuses committed by the Trump Administration merit a new term: Unjustice. We define Unjustice as a return to past policies and behaviors that deemed some members of society unworthy of fair and equal treatment under the law. It is a horrific reminder of the power and authority unjustly wielded against communities of color by law enforcement throughout time. And it represents an unraveling of the criminal justice reform progress made in a range of states and communities from leaders of all political backgrounds who recognize both the moral and economic stakes of reverting to prejudiced criminal justice policies.

Young people of color and the criminal justice system

BLACK YOUNG WOMEN ARE 19% MORE LIKELY TO BE STOPPED IN PUBLIC BY THE POLICE THAN WHITE YOUNG WOMEN

57% OF ARRESTS OF MALES 18-24 ARE OF YOUNG MEN OF COLOR

BLACK AND LATINO STUDENTS COMPRISE

BLACK AND LATINA STUDENTS COMPRISE

Decision-making levers that disproportionately punish youth and young adults of color

Selected Trump Administration Unjustice Actions

- Promising Police Reform Strategies Under Threat
  - Consent decrees
  - Blue lives matter
- Reversing Progress in Strategic Prosecutorial Choices
  - Prosecutorial discretion
  - JJDPA Guidance
- Criminalizing Youth Culture and Immigrant Youth
  - Gang Enhancements

Workforce and Education Pathways

Redesigning schools

Mental Health

Trauma

Funding

Governance

Youth Justice

- How is your work responding to Unjustice?
- What policies are you working to advance?

Compass Rose/FHI 360

Youth
Leadership

Partnerships

Recruitment

Placement

The challenge before the collective us: How do we effectively recognize and thwart negative messaging and policy proposals while also advancing a comprehensive vision for youth justice investment that is actionable and holds all stakeholders accountable?

“It is our duty to fight for our freedom.
It is our duty to win.
We must love each other and support each other.
We have nothing to lose but our chains.”

— Assata Shakur