

The Trump Administration’s Public Charge Rule Could Impact 430,000 People in the Old Dominion

The Trump Administration has finalized its “public charge” rule, which would make it more difficult for immigrants to obtain a green card if they use any of a wide range of public benefits. If litigation does not prevent the rule from taking effect, the policy would become effective in 60 days on Tuesday, October 15, 2019. The public charge rule would make—and has already made—immigrant families afraid to seek programs for which they are eligible and that help them stay strong, productive, and raise children who thrive.

By threatening immigration status when immigrants use programs to meet their family’s basic needs, the rule would make immigrant families in Virginia afraid to access programs—like health care and food assistance—that support essential needs. This fact sheet describes the potentially chilled population in the Old Dominion State, including several counties facing the greatest impact.

VIRGINIA
Approximately 430,000 people, including 150,000 children, may be impacted.

NATIONWIDE
Approximately 26 million people, including 9.2 million children, may be impacted.
