Black Youth & the New Jim Code

By Clarence Okoh

PROJECT INTRODUCTION

Clarence Okoh (he/him) is a civil rights attorney and Just Tech Fellow who works at the intersection of race, technology, and the law. His project explores the role of carceral technologies in driving school pushout for Black and brown youth and how these technologies enable systemic rights abuses. Using a mixture of legal tools and qualitative research methods, his project foregrounds the visions of Black and brown youth seeking to build abolitionist futures.
